

Pre-Assessment Participant Knowledge

Do you believe that toxic masculinity exists?

Do you feel that you fully understand consent?

Can one exhibit Toxic Masculinity without touching another person?

Do you think you may have engaged in Toxic behaviors in your past?

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

● No ● Somewhat ● Yes

Post-Assessment Participant Knowledge

32 out of 35
Reporting participants felt that the information covered by the presenter adequately addressed their learning interests on the topic.

*3 Participants indicated no response

Participant Word Association

Pre-Course frequently used words

What are some words that come to mind when you think of "Toxic Masculinity"

Post-Course frequently used words

How much do you know about Toxic Masculinity

Pre-Course frequently used words

Post-Course Responses

● Nothing or only heard the term
● Knew some things
● Knowledgeable
● Knowledgeable & can talk about it

● Nothing or only heard the term
● Knew some things
● Knowledgeable
● Knowledgeable & can talk about it

Key Data Points

- Participants saw an overall 40% increase in their knowledge of the subject.
- There was a 62% increase in individuals who answered that they had engaged in Toxic Masculinity, which indicates a deeper understanding of the subject and their behaviors.
- Post Assessment evaluations indicate that nearly 5x as many participants were "Knowledgeable and can talk about" Toxic Masculinity after having participated in this workshop
- After attending this training participants were more likely to use the direct and impactful language to define Toxic Masculinity
- Participants were satisfied with the training and education they were provided as well